

Pinstripe Bar in Ubud

A sophisticated cocktail, wine and dine bar inspired by the elegance of The Prohibition era, now a vibrant destination for refined evenings in Bali.

Ubud, Indonesia - Tucked among the jungle and rice fields just moments from central Ubud, Pinstripe is a destination that blends the elegance of a bygone era with the creativity of today. More than a cocktail bar, Pinstripe offers a complete wine and dine experience, with refined small plates, bold mixology, and an atmosphere inspired by the glamour of the 1920s and 1930s.

Pinstripe earned its name from one of the era's boldest fashion statements, the pinstripe suit - a symbol of style and rebellion made iconic during America's Prohibition period. When restrictions on alcohol in the United States sparked a global expansion of cocktail culture, a diaspora of bartenders carried their craft across continents. This wave of influence reached even as far as Bali, where fashion and flavour found a new home. The connection is close to the heart of the Pinstripe story, with nods to Viceroy Bali's founders: Margaret Bainbridge, a fashion designer, and Otto Syrowatka, whose signature pinstripe suits inspired the bar's name.

The current cocktail menu, The Clairvoyant, is a beautifully illustrated journey through the life of Miguel Covarrubias - a key figure in both the Harlem Renaissance and Bali's cultural awakening. Each drink reflects a chapter in Covarrubias' life, from jazz-filled nights in New York to his artistic discoveries in Bali. With locally sourced ingredients, rare spirits, and striking presentation, the menu offers a multi-sensory experience that is as refined as it is imaginative.

Beyond cocktails, Pinstripe offers an elevated selection of wines, aperitifs, and a curated menu of elegant bar dishes that draw subtle influence from Indonesia's spice-laden culinary heritage. The bar also features a cigar humididor stocked with fine selections from across Asia, ideal for guests who appreciate refined indulgence.

Sustainability remains an important part of the program, with many cocktail elements repurposed from the kitchen as part of a zero-waste initiative. Guests looking for a more immersive experience can also enjoy cocktail sessions guided by the bar's expert team, paired with curated bites and garden-sourced ingredients.

Pinstripe is not just a bar – it is a place where time slows, taste is elevated, and every sip tells a story. From aperitif to after-hours, it is Ubud's destination for those who appreciate elegance, storytelling, and the art of drink and dining.

ABOUT VICEROY BALI
